of which he/she is a member and all other organizations with which the CTGA has relationships.

iii. Any close family relative* to a competitive gymnast may not judge that gymnast or his/her unit (pair, group, etc.) at any CTGA sanctioned event. If a conflict should or could appear, the president of the CTGA is to be informed, so appropriate action can be taken.

iv. Definition of “close family relative” as per FIG-EC decision:

- People who are or were married to or live in a registered partnership or co-habit with a gymnast.
- People who are related to a gymnast by birth or marriage in direct or in collateral line, including the following persons: grandparent, parent, uncle, aunt, brother, sister, child, grandchild, nephew and cousin.

v. All CTGA representatives are to handle their responsibilities with diligence and care. They shall abstain from any false declarations and shall behave in a dignified and respectful manner. They demonstrate fairness in all sport activities and decisions which might affect the reputation of the CTGA.

vi. Members of the CTGA authorities may not be linked to enterprises or persons whose activities are incompatible with the principles or the rules of the FIG/CTGA and its Codes.

vii. The CTGA members, officials, judges and participants of CTGA events are not permitted to demonstrate undue pressure or influence the vote or the direction of decisions made in the CTGA, and especially must avoid any cooperation sought by influencing the work and evaluation of the judges.

- viii. CTGA financial resources may only be used to support gymnastic aims and objectives as approved by decisions at the appropriate level of the CTGA. The income and expenses must be documented according to sound accounting practices and be fully transparent.
- ix. The CTGA members recognize the important contribution and involvement of television, sponsors, partners and other supporters of gymnastics activities required for the development of the sport of gymnastics. All supporters and partners have to abide by the rules of the FIG/CTGA and the current Code. They cannot interfere or obstruct the organization of events, which are exclusively the responsibility and competence of the CTGA.
- x. The organizers of official CTGA events and CTGA members must adhere to the respective guidelines, the statutes, the rules and regulations of the FIG/CTGA and the national federation, and the decisions taken by the sports authorities at the various levels of the organization. They have to refuse all approaches made by any third party and to abstain from approaching any third party, to obtain financial gain or political influence which does not conform to the rules and agreements.
- xi. The members of the CTGA authorities are free to participate in public life. They should not conduct themselves publicly, nor proclaim an ideology which is contrary to the rules of the CTGA and the current Code.

- xii. The members of the CTGA are responsible to safeguard the environment for all events which they organize by respecting all rules and norms.
- xiii. The members of the FIG authorities are to be respectful of confidential information in which they share. Passing on any information should not give them any personal profit or advantage and should not be used to harm the reputation of a person or an organization.
- xiv. Any infringement of the Code of Ethics shall be dealt with by the Disciplinary Authority of the Gymnastics Ethics Foundation, subject to the provisions of the Policy and Procedures for Safeguarding and Protecting Participants in Gymnastics and is liable to sanctions provided for by the Statutes.
